Images of Women From the Sweet Briar College Collection

1992 Exhibition, Anne Gary Pannell Center Gallery, Sweet Briar College

SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE LIBRARY
SWEET BRIAR, VA 24595

The 1992 Sweet Briar Calendar is drawn from images of women in the College's art collection. An exhibition on this theme will be presented in the Pannell Art Gallery January 17- March 22, 1992.

The purpose of the exhibition is to explore the portrayal of women by artists from different periods, primarily from the 19th and 20th centuries. The exhibition is related to Natasha Stanfill's '92 Senior Thesis in Art History; her work in organizing the exhibition will comprise an advanced Arts Management practicum project. Lois Guchu '92 also will complete an Arts Management practicum for her work as graphic artist for the project. Lois, a double major in Studio Art and French, will design the catalog, the announcement, and signage and labels for the exhibition.

Advisors for the project are Diane Moran, Chair of the Department of Art History; Christopher Witcombe, Associate Professor of Art History; Helen Beckstrom, Director of the Women and Gender Studies Program; Laura Pharis, Assistant Professor of Studio Art; and Rebecca Massie Lane, Director of College Galleries and Arts Management.
